

Moffat Convection Ovens are distributed and warranted by the manufacturer, and have been extensively sold in North America since 1985. These compact and fully featured products provide solutions to the foodservice and bakery industry, available through established local equipment dealers, with warranty and service provided through a network of professional service agencies.

SAME DAY SHIPPING

Ovens are carried by local dealers, and inventory carried in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, means ovens can ship on the same day orders are received - with transit times normally being 4 -5 working days. Moffat offers a flat rate shipment rate - with direct drop ship available.

WARRANTY

Moffat Ovens carry a 12 month parts and labor warranty - supported by a network of local parts stockists and service companies. We also offer a toll free customer service line to make getting help in ordering or operating your Moffat product simple. Just call 1 800 551 8795 and our customer service staff will assist you.

APPLICATIONS

Because of the features, compact footprint and styling, Moffat convection ovens can be found in varying applications such as convenience stores, chain restaurants, hotels, independent restaurants, schools, grocery and supermarkets, bakeries, mall kiosks, and specialty user applications. Unique styling makes for attractive and functional front of house presentation.

SPECIFICATION SHEETS

Detailed specification sheets are available for all Moffat models. These sheets provide full specifications including elevation, plan and dimensions, power, water and gas inputs as well as details on ratings and options.

ISO9001

All Turbofan products are designed and manufactured by Moffat using the internationally recognised ISO9001 quality management system, covering design, manufacture and final inspection, ensuring consistent high quality at all times.
